CATHERINE MILLS is a seasoned veteran of the obedience ring. Over the years, Catherine's dogs have achieved the highest honors, from that perfect score to Obedience Trial Champions, to World Series, Regional and Classic placements. Her students do equally as well in the ring, earning titles and placements all the way through OTCh. Catherine's intuitive use of the principles of operant and classical conditioning are a unique experience for both the novice handler as well as the seasoned veteran. Her goal is to help each individual team set and attain their goals. Working with Catherine's methods will take you to a new level of excitement in your training.
