A Message from our President

Blake Roulette

Greetings

It's that time again, time for our meeting and our elections. Elections are held the first meeting after our primary show which is the July show, our only show now.

Please plan to attend as this will seat the board for the upcoming year. The slate of proposed officers has been sent to each of you.

We just had a great show and are starting to plan for the next show. There is time but it's never too early to start putting together the plans.

Hope each of you had a good show, taking home many ribbons and points.

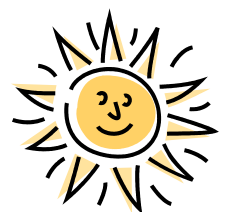

Please plan to be at the meeting

Be safe

Until Tuesday,

Blake

Show Chair Report Kris Harner

WOO HOO it's over! Thank you to all our members who worked hard and made this show a Great Success. I don't know why, but with the few changes made this year, we just didn't seem to have many problems. Not once did I hear a complaint about not having power, or they can't find any grooming space. So all in all, these shows seem to run smoothly and well.

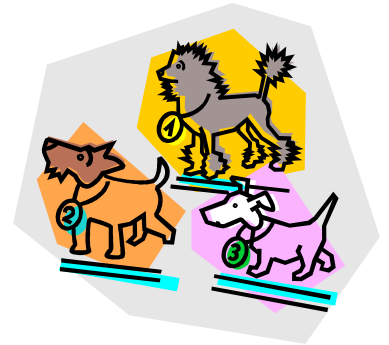

I have one little story that many of you probably have not heard. We had an Obedience exhibitor fall before she was to show. She needed to be transported to the hospital, as it seemed she broke her hip. Her last words before she left is to please have someone show her dog. Her trainer did in fact find an exhibitor to show her dog. This dog was entered in the highest level, Utility A. The handler and dog had never met. They asked the judge to move them to the end, so that the 2 could work together. When it was time to enter the ring, many watched the performance. Somehow, this new team managed not only to qualify, but to win the class with only losing 3 points. This level of training, requires the dog to work without voice commands, to do signals from a distance, to discriminate the scent of the new handler out of a pile of objects. The fact that this dog was able to do this and the handler to be clear in their instructions is absolutely amazing. This showed the highest level of sportsmanship I have ever witnessed. There was not a dry eye when this team finished. So proud of everyone involved.

Now we begin to get ready for next year! Of course any thoughts and suggestions of things that you felt went well and ideas on things we may want to change, is always welcomed.

Your Show Chair, Kris Harner
